

Pathways Inclusion Representative Meeting
Nov. 9, 2010, 7 to 9:00 p.m.
St. Giles Parish
Gleeson Building, McDonough Hall (2nd Floor)
1101 N. Columbian Avenue
Oak Park, IL 60302

St. Giles Church is two blocks south of North Avenue and three blocks east of Oak Park Avenue on the corner of Greenfield and Columbian Avenue.
 The Gleeson Building is across Greenfield Avenue from St. Giles Church. The ramped, accessible entrance is on the south end of the building at Greenfield Ave. Enter here and take the elevator to the second floor McDonough Hall. Two accessible parking places with a curb cut are available on Greenfield Ave. near the ramped entrance. Five parking places are reserved behind the Gleeson Building for individuals who need close proximity to the building. All other attendees may park in the church lot across the street on Columbian Ave.

From the Northwest: Take I-294 south to Irving Park east exit. Turn south on 25th Avenue to North Avenue, then turn east (or left). Go several miles to Oak Park Avenue, the next stop light is Columbian Avenue, turn right and go two blocks. Road construction may block Columbian in front of Gleeson Bldg. so circle the block to Greenfield.
